Adam's week

Adam opened his eyes. "Oh, time to go to school." He thought. He got out of bed and went into the kitchen. "Good morning, Adam," his mum said. "Here's your breakfast. Let's talk about this week. What are you going to do?" Adam thought. "Well, today is Monday and this afternoon I'm going to help Mrs Trent in her garden. Maybe I can cut her grass today."

5 "Wait a minute! Why are you working for Mrs Trent? What about your room? And what about your maths test tomorrow?" asked Adam's mum. "But, Mum! I need some money!" Adam said. "We're going to have a sleepover at Luca's house on Friday and we need food and drinks." Adam's mum was surprised. "I don't understand, Adam. I give you pocket money every week," she said.

"You're right, Mum," Adam answered, "but I bought a computer game, so I need more money."

10 Adam's mum looked fed up. "Adam, it's very important that you practise for your test and tidy your bedroom."

"OK, I'm going to practise for the test this afternoon and tidy my room tomorrow. I have to phone Mrs Trent and tell her I can't work for her today," said Adam. "OK, great." Adam's mum looked happier. "You know what? I can help you too. I'm going to make a salad and some sandwiches 15 for your sleepover on Friday. And you can take some juice from the cafe, too."

Adam was happy now. "That's great! Thanks Mum! Maybe I can help you in the cafe on Wednesday. I know that you are busy when dad is away on the ferry." Adam's mum was excited.

"Adam, what a great idea! Thank you so much. Don't forget to phone Mrs Trent before you leave for school. Ask her if you can cut her grass next week," she said. Adam phoned Mrs Trent. She 20 said that next week was fine too. Adam felt great.
