Victor can't stand his mother and her boyfriend because...

The screenshot shows a browser window with the title "9 Strange parents". Below the title is the question: "a) Read Victor's blog entry. Why can't he stand his mother and her boyfriend?". The browser address bar is empty, and the search bar contains the text "Search". The main content of the page is a blog entry by a young woman with brown hair, smiling. The text of the blog entry is: "I can't stand my mother and her boyfriend, Rémy – at least not at the moment. It's always 'Do this, don't do that!'" They have too many rules. And they're really strange, too. Rémy usually does the cooking at the weekend and he loves talking about healthy food. Today at lunch he said that salad is more delicious than a hamburger. He must be crazy. I'm a huge fan of hamburgers so for me nothing is better than a hamburger! And all this stuff they say about school. They think that German is more important than PE. Can you believe it? They want to send me to Germany in the school holidays. I'd rather play football with my friends. But there's even more. Rémy thinks maths is the most interesting subject at school. Ha! Do you have such strange parents, too?". Below the blog entry is the question: "b) What do YOU think? What is the most delicious food? What is the most interesting subject?".

b) Write about yourself!!! Write at least four sentences.

The most delicious (lecker, schmackhaft) food is...

The most interesting subject is...

4.1 Jasmine's diary WB x p. xx

a Read Jasmine's diary entry. How does she feel?

Wednesday, 7th April

I'm still angry. If I can't wear make-up, I'll phone Grandma and tell her about my problem. Grandma is cool. She loves fashion and wears lots of make-up herself. Maybe she can talk to Mum and tell her that nothing is wrong with wearing make-up when you're 12 years old.

I should also talk to Dad about Mum's other annoying rules. He is often more relaxed than Mum. If he understands me, he will try to convince Mum that listening to music helps you concentrate on your homework.

If I have children one day, I won't tell them what to wear or when to go to bed. I'm sure about that. If they want to wear make-up, I won't say a word. And if they want to stay up till 11 p.m., they will be free to do so. And if I earn enough money, I'll buy them really good loudspeakers for their rooms and then they can listen to music all day long. Everyone will be happy and there won't be any arguing or fighting. Thank you diary. I'm feeling so much better now.
