

The bunny school

Aufgabe: Lies den Text und beantworte die Fragen. Viel Erfolg!

The little rabbits look forward to the school every day. In the bunny school, the little rabbits learn everything they need for life. They learn reading, writing and math. In class, the rabbit students have to sit still. They listen to the teacher. They have to write dictations and must answer questions. During the break, the little rabbits play in the schoolyard and eat carrots. Then the school bell rings and the students have to return to class again. The little rabbits love sports. There, the little rabbits are racing. After class, the teacher writes the homework on the blackboard.

Fragen zum Text

1. What do the little rabbits learn at school?

2. What are the little rabbits doing in the break?

3. Do the little rabbits like sport?

4. What does the teacher write on the board after class?

